FOREWORD

We, the Class of 1961, have completed another year and have reached our goal. Although these years are gone forever, they shall never be forgotten. The many hours spent in work, play, and study will stand as a monument to those who have overcome difficulties and took advantage of opportunities presented to them to make it a success.

We wish to present this yearbook to continue the tradition of the past years. The first yearbook was edited at Myerstown in 1921. After two years of publication it was discontinued. The class of '49 once again resumed the task and named it "The Myrialog."

Now as you turn each page, may a remembrance fill your heart with the joys you shared at Myerstown High during the year 1960-61.

VALENTINE DANCE

ALMA MATER

Faithful and true-hearted, Let us cheer our dear old High,
We revere her and defend her, and her colors proudly fly;
We will stand for her united, Of her deeds we gladly tell,
Her colors streaming, Glad faces beaming,
So here's a cheer for her that we all love so well.

Chorus

Joyous and ever loyal, Let us boost for our old High,
Let ev'ry heart sing, Let ev'ry voice ring,
There's no time to grieve or sigh.
It's ever onward, our course pursuing, May defeat ne'er our ardor cool,
But, united, We will boost for her, our Old High School.

II

Honors she has taken, On the track and with the ball,
May she always rank the highest, May her colors never fall.
There's no other that can match her, When her team is on the field,
Her boys the fleetest, Her girls the sweetest.
Then here's a cheer for her, for her who ne'er will yield.

SCHOOL HISTORY

The Hill School, which is located on North College Street, was erected as a result of the consolidation of the original limestone school. The Infirmary and the Hill School served as our educational institutions until the erection of our present high school.

Architect, Edward Z. Scholl, and contractor, Andrew J. Fink, built our high school in 1915.

The members of the first board of directors were Dr. D. U. Wolff, George Uhrich, Ephriam Bleistein, John Schoener, and Harry Kline. We have had the following principals: J. J. Strahl, Ralph Davenport, Chester Hartzler, Henry Hollinger, Walter Richter, John Auld, and presently Harvey L. Nitrauer.

Engravings on the cornerstones of our school are: "Education is the cornerstone of success," and "Wisdom is the birth of freedom."

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1961, proudly and sincerely dedicate our yearbook, The Myrialog, to Mr. Harold Yeagley whose influence has been felt chiefly by those who have been interested in music. Nevertheless, many seniors will rememeber his teaching of seventh grade history, the many hours of practice preparing for Concerts, parades and his helpful instruction that prepared many musicians for County Band.

To you, Mr. Yeagley, we, the Seniors of 1961, dedicate the Myrialog.

TRIBUTE

We pay tribute to Miss Mabel Immel, who has counseled, assisted, and urged us on to finality.

Throughout our Senior year she has worked side by side with us to make a success of our Street Fair held September 1-3, Berger Club, Magazine Sales, Senior Play, "Second Fiddle," and our long awaited New York trip. We also appreciate all the time and effort Miss Immel has put forth in making our yearbook a success.

Our sincere thanks to our Senior Advisor in deep appreciation of her help and assistance.

MEMOIRS OF THE SENIOR YEAR

Our senior year found us working very hard in order to raise money for our New York trip. We began by selling refreshments at the Street Fair held at the Playground Area on September 1-3. In November we rehearsed for our play, "Second Fiddle" which was given on the 17th and 18th. At the same time we were busy selling Berger Club membership and magazine subscriptions. Another big job was the Mynalog, which we worked on from November to February. On May 15, 16, and 17th we took our long waited for trip to New York. After the return from our trip, rehearsals for Class Day began which was given May 26. Then Baccalaureate was held on May 28, and Commencement on June 1.

Now we are entering upon a new experience. We hope the wonderful instruction and experiences we have received in our school days will guide our paths to success and happiness.

CLASS HISTORY

Early in September of 1949, our band of wild little demons invaded the High School. Miss Leah Loose ably guided us and taught us our A B C's in first grade. Each day we went to the blackboard to do our arithmetic problems. Great pride was taken in being able to ring the recess bell, and in making art projects in our sandbox. We also learned a new and exciting game, boys catch the girls.

Second grade found us in a different school building. We had now moved up to the hill school with Mrs. Emerick as our teacher. Faye Ellen Krommes joined us this year. One of her favorite pastimes was talking out loud during school. This year Ruth Ann Wiley made her unforgettable statement, "My mother has lice." (She really meant dandruff.)

Growing physically and mentally, we proceeded through the third grade under the supervision of Miss Schell. This is the year we learned to sit up straight and to write beautifully. The greatest excitement of the year occurred when Martha Reed fainted at the blackboard.

In the fourth grade we became more energetic due to the fact that each day we had to climb the stairs to get to our room on the second floor. We learned how to do long division and some of us started our musical careers by playing instruments in the Junior Band. A memorable event of this year was Linda Crouse's appendectomy. By this time our favorite game was girls catch the boys.

Mrs. Snavelly indoctrinated us, in fifth grade, in the fine habits of intensive study by giving us long homework assignments. This year we also began making oral book reports and a newcomer, Logan Salem, joined our class. Cecil Saunders made his debut in our musical program presented before the class. Do you remember the color of his ears when his violin screeched? Our first dramatic production entitled "Marco Polo and His Travels to the Orient" was also presented.

We progressed on to sixth grade where Mr. Snavelly was our teacher. This year we became skilled at ducking flying erasers and chalk. Since we were the oldest students in the building, we were allowed to use the fire escape, ring the recess bell, and become members of the safety patrol. The girls also distributed the milk to the various class rooms and it was this year that the boys started to become interested in the girls. Some became seriously interested in that they gave their favorite girl a ring that they had gotten out of a bubble gum machine. This was the unlucky year for Edna Haak for she sprained her leg so badly that it had to be put in a cast and added to this, her dog bit her on the nose. Imagine the shock we had one morning when Sally Watson came to school minus her long pigtails. At this time of our lives we became interested in the national sport of Americans, baseball. Every Friday afternoon we scheduled a big league game with the fifth graders.

In September of 1955, ninety-nine frightened seventh graders entered the doors of Myerstown High School which was to be their home for the next six years. Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Hess ably guided us around the large halls and into the right rooms. It did not take us long to learn the lay-out of the rooms and the rules of the school. However, it took us quite a while to adjust ourselves to new habits and activities. Our seventh grade ended—may it rest in peace.

Mr. Kugle and Mr. Blantz were our homeroom teachers in eighth grade. This year we girls displayed our cooking ability by making tapioca in Home Economics class. We made one large mistake however. Instead of putting three tablespoons of tapioca and one-eighth of a teaspoon of salt in the concoction, we did just the opposite. And Miss Smeltzer wondered why we made funny faces when we had to eat the tapioca! Our Christmas party was also worth remembering. What was that around your neck, Mr. Kugle, and why were you standing on a chair? As we left eighth grade, we still could hear the echo of those famous words of Mr. Kugle, "Let me tell you people something," etc. and so on.

The title of Freshmen was bestowed upon us in ninth grade. We were proud of this title and frowned with disgust when referred to as ninth-graders. Explorer Kugle took us on a trip to Gettysburg and those of us who were slow in getting to the bus had a new experience in hiking a half mile. And oh, yes, someone accidentally (???) sat on Mr. Kugle's submarine. The lucky homeroom teachers this memorable year were Mr. Blantz and Mr. Hottenstein.

Our class colors, black and white, and also class jackets were chosen in our Sophomore year. We spent many pleasant (??) hours dissecting worms and crayfish in biology class, under the guidance of Mr. Whitfield. The eating of M and M's during seventh period, while our homeroom teachers, Mrs. Jeffers and Mr. Blantz were otherwise occupied, was another tricky habit we acquired.

The role of Juniors was next for us with our favorite (??) homeroom teachers, Mr. Kugle and Mr. Mentzer. This year we chose our class rings which were our pride and joy. The highlight of the year was our Junior-Senior Prom which took many hours of hard work and a few years off of our life expectancy. But it turned out well as we visited in "Icelandic Isle."

As the curtain slowly descends on our school life, the role of being a Senior involves many activities. We not only receive diplomas, but also degrees in salesmanship. By selling magazines, running a Berger Club Plan, and giving a two-night production of "Second Fiddle," we finally reached our second goal, a trip to New York City. Mr. Fake and Mrs. Snunders, our homeroom teachers, were a great deal of help to us throughout the year. The planning and publication of the Myrialog, the annual Valentine Dance, our trip to New York, Class Night and Commencement—these are the memorable highlights of our Senior year.

Now that we are about to leave our dear Alma Mater, we remember all the troubles and struggles of High School, the many hours of fun, hard work, and most of all, the joys and friendships we have acquired here. As we step out into the world we say a reluctant "Farewell" to our dear old Alma Mater, Myerstown High.

BE IT REMEMBERED

That we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-one, of Myerstown High School, which is in the County of Lebanon and the State of Pennsylvania, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make, publish and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

MARCH OF TIME

'Twas the year 1981 and we were checking on the whereabouts of our H. S. classmates with the intention of having a class reunion. What surprises were in store for us!

Remember our Class President, Charlie—at present, he is the owner of the C. S. C. B. Company (Charles Scheffer Cinnamon Bun Company) with 99 delivery trucks ably managed by Donald Miller. Remember Sandy, the Queen of our Valentine Dance—she is at present, an art critic in the Louvre in Paris.

An efficient minute taker in the sub-branch of the U. N. located in Moscow is Janet Dorkes. In her free time she has lunch with Sally Watson who is translator of men's at "Soo Lin Chow" (Chinese) and is often joined by Karen Boyer, Sandra Dubble, and Shirley Umberger, who record all the places where lost missiles are found. Professor Spots, trailed by Satellite Deck, is interviewing candidates for the first woman to be put into outer space.

The Shuey-Ruoss "36-22-36 Salon" has had a rushing business in Mt. Aetna with an experienced staff including Sallie Brandt in charge of the Slim Gym equipment, Joanne Lasch who watches carefully the gauge of Mary Hower's Weekly Steam Bath, and Betty Brown publishing pamphlets on the "3½ Easy Ways of Catching a Husband."

To our amazement, we discovered that a large number of our classmates are engaged in the medical profession at the newly constructed $4 million L. Rover Bark-Bark Hospital. Dr. E. G. Haak has just received her appointment here as the first woman surgeon in the United States, with M. Hildegard Reed as her private secretary. Priscilla Brubaker has recently developed a calming sedative of bologna with built-in aspirin for 2-3 month old pups. In an advance wing of the hospital, we find Peggy Snoke and Nadine Donley giving Infra-red heat treatments to dogs with arthritis or rheumatism and achieving great success. Experimenting in the field of psychiatry and attempting to find out why dogs chase cats is R. N. Faye Krommes. Ambulance driver for the L. Rover Bark-Bark Hospital is none other than Earl Brown. Henry Althouse is the male nurse who rides with Nurse Rose Deck (who craves excitement) on ambulance calls. Chief moppper-upper in the admission office of the hospital is Jeffrey Swanger.

The Amazon has a definite hold on Ruth Ann Lengle and Sheila Weik, who are very profound bug-haters. Their present project is to find a way of killing black spiders. Glenda Spiller and Helen Troutman are also in this area attempting to find a shorter method of skinning an alligator.

Pro-football players for the Speedy-Eedy Wildcats, whose home field is in Nome, Alaska, are Delmas Tevalt, Dale Stonesifer, Ronald Sadler, and Delbert Gassert. Their business manager, Mary Jane Houtz, was formerly employed by Santa Claus at the North Pole as official stamp lickier for Reindeer Christmas Cards.

Much to our surprise, we found Sandra Miller and Lester Copenhaver trying to make a success of their Broadway version of the ever popular T. V. Show, "The Square."

The service has become a career for some of our classmates. Glenn Mader and Bob Kleintzler are both stationed in Hawaii where they have become big experts. Still in basic training is Stanley Smith who finds it difficult to shoot a rifle. In California at an officer's school are Russell Miller and Logan Salem. Both are trying very hard to attain the rank of Private First Class.

A few of the college-bound graduates of the class of '61 are settled throughout the world as teachers. Ruth Ann Wiley and Linda Crouse are employed by the Boston School Board as elementary teachers. After graduation from Penn State, Richard Smith has attained the position of engineer for the Myerstown Subway System. Accountants for the United States Bottling Company are Wilard Becker and Ronald Rover with Leroy Fwing head typist and Gay Wagner as his assistant.

Wanted: Jerry Morris and Leroy Feaser for committing the unheard of crime of holding up one of Betty Gettle's newly designed dresses. Lawyer Cecil Saunders has offered to defend these boys.

Organ tuner Charles Wilson has just invented a new key. It has been named Z sharp. Singer Georgetta LeGay is giving voice lessons to Johnny Mathis.

Carpenter David Behm is busily working to rebuild the barn on the "Double, Bubble Farm" owned by Gary Dubble. Leon Snyder, a tenant farmer on the "Double, Bubble Farm," is attempting to raise hairless hogs. Chief egg-collector Robert Smith collects approximately 2 eggs per day from four thousand laying hens on the farm of Larry Ziegler. Eugene Brubaker is raising Rocky Mountain goats for his New Milk Route.

The Flip-Flop Beauty Shop owned and operated by Joann Flammus and Doris Moyer has just invented a new hair style called the "Lemon." The Secretary who handles the demanding business is Barbara Donmoyer with the money handler (none other than Carole Rager).

Rosemary Althouse and Sandra Souders are dietitians in the mess hall at East Point.

Happily married former classmates, Corinne Shenk, Brenda Garrett, and Elaine Auchenbach, have formed the "Young Brides, Inc."—publishing a weekly addition of advice to the lovelorn.

What a reunion this will be! Variety is the spice of conversation.

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y, an organization branching out from the Y. M. C. A., consists of members from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. The enrollment this year is seventy-seven girls with Mrs. Esther Z. Papson as the advisor.

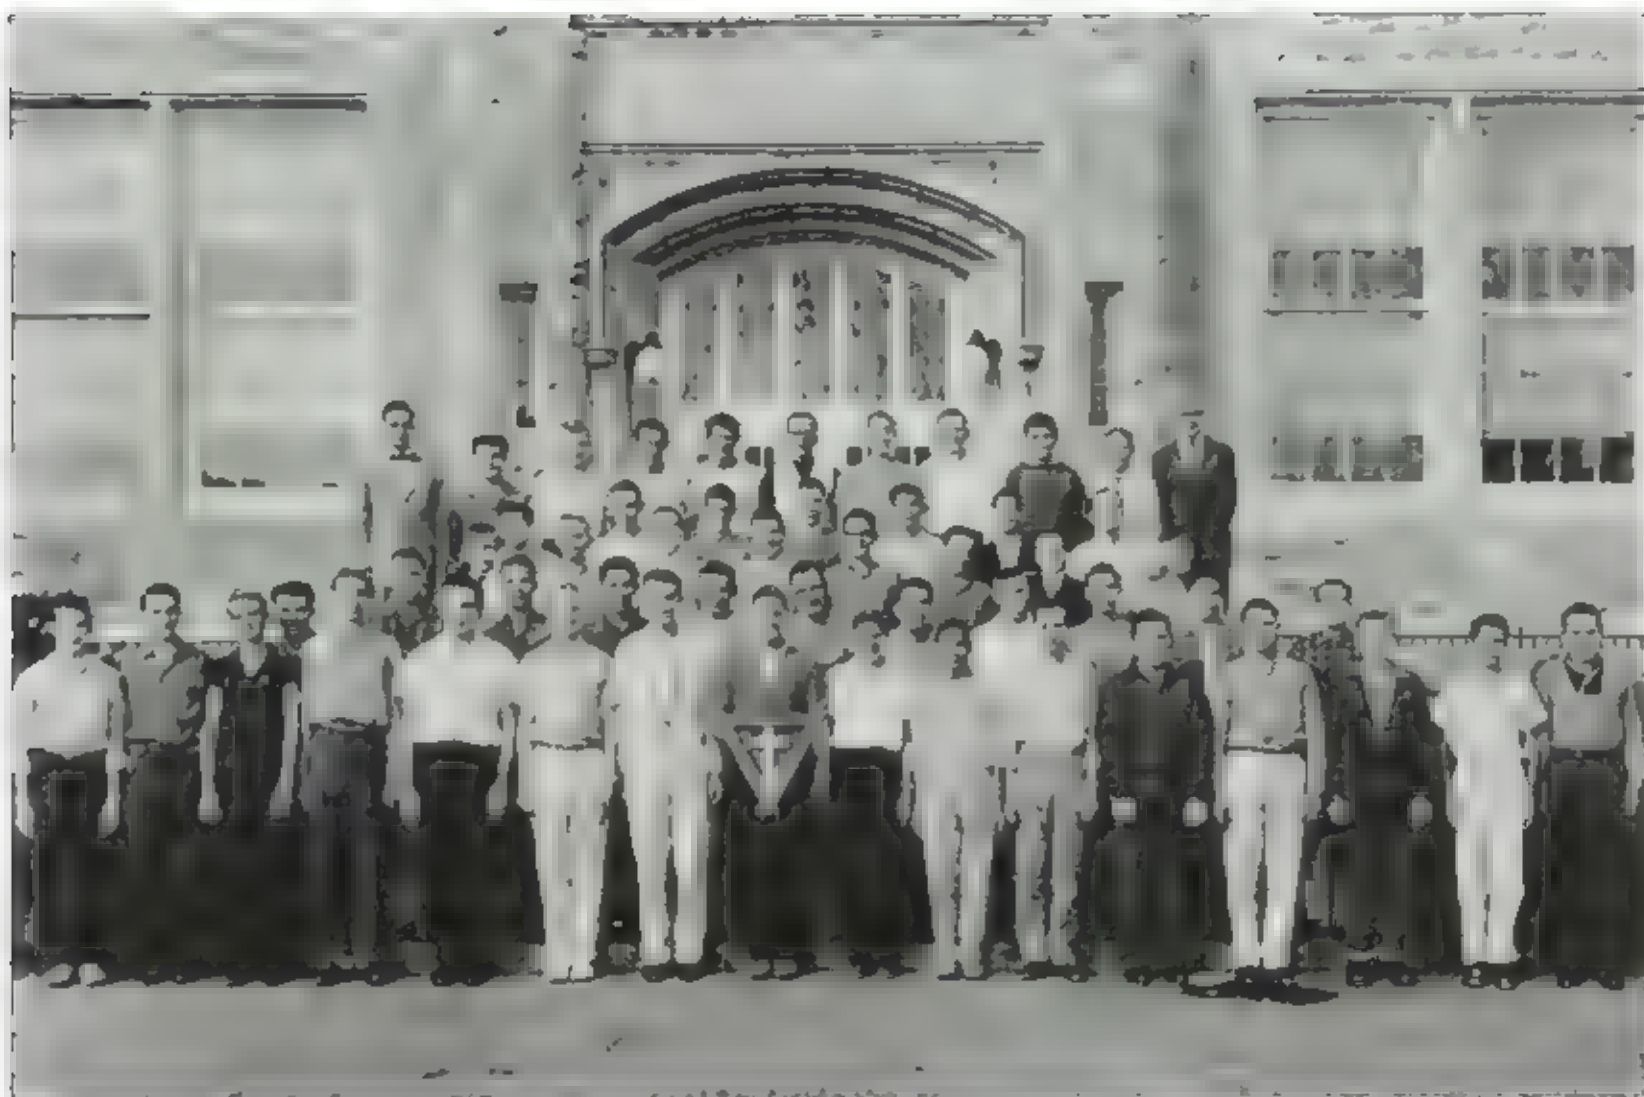

It was organized in the school year of 1942-43 under Miss Betty Anne Rutherford's leadership.

In February of 1944 the Senior Tri-Hi-Y sponsored the first Valentine Dance, which has become a tradition in our school.

Mrs. Gates became the leader when Miss Zug resigned in 1951-52. In 1953-54 Mrs. Merritt Jeffers became leader, assisted by Mrs. Lena B. Saunders. In 1959-60, Mrs. Christopher Papson rejoined our club and took over the leadership duties.

The weekly meetings began with a devotional period which is followed by the business meeting. The Senior Tri-Hi-Y is one of the most active organizations in our high school.

Some activities of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y are as follows: Thanksgiving favors for the Old Folks Home, Campfire Service, the Christmas Pageant "Why the Chimes Rang," caroling in the halls at Christmas, Christmas parties for the first grade, the Valentine Dance, and active participation in the county Y clubs.

The first Newsgram was published in 1928 with Kendig B. Cully as Editor-in-Chief. In the first few copies of the paper the title was written in hyphenated form and its subtitle was "The Advocate of the School Spirit." At the beginning the paper, only costing five cents, was published every two weeks by a staff consisting approximately of thirty-five members.

Mrs. Ruth Lantz, who became chief advisor of the Newsgram in 1948, is today assisted by an advisory staff made up of eight other members of the faculty. The Newsgram, a monthly publication costing twenty-five cents, is published commercially and includes many local patrons who help to support it financially. The main objective of the Newsgram is to help build a greater and better M. H. S. It accomplishes this aim by improving the material in every issue. The Staff today consists of forty-six students and nine faculty members, each member contributing to fulfillment of its goals.

The club's activities include field trips to hospitals and related agencies, films on nursing and associated professions, speakers on various phases of nursing and the making of holiday favors for our local infirmaries.

This year the Lebanon County F. N. C. were hosts to the Second Annual Southern Convention District Conference of F. N. C. held in the Cornwall High School. Mrs. Kercher and Priscilla Brubaker represented our school.

Nadine Donley is the corresponding secretary of the Lebanon County F. N. C.

LEAH LOOSE FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

This year a new club was formed in our school in order to interest more high school students in teaching careers. This club, better known as the F. T. A., has Mrs. Saunders and Mr. Lantz as its advisors and meets during the seventh period on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month. Charter members of the club are Seniors—Linda Croise and Sylvia Wilson; Juniors—Charlotte Eckenroth, Penny Honker, and Ann Strauss; Sophomores—Jennifer Kenney and Eric Smith.

In December, the club was faced with the task of choosing a name for their Club. By tradition, the high school level F. T. A.'s choose the name of a well known teacher in their town or state. Our club decided they wanted to be known as the Leah Loose F. T. A. and then asked for, and received Miss Loose's permission to use her name. When their charter was granted to them by Miss Lucy Valero during their assembly program on March 3, 1961, it bore the name Leah Loose Future Teachers of America Club of Myerstown High School.

Before her retirement in 1953 Miss Loose had taught for forty-seven years. She spent her first year of teaching in Hain's School in Jackson Township and the next forty-six years in Myerstown Public School System. By using Miss Loose's name the club hopes to pay tribute to a fine educator and to express their gratitude for the fine example she, as well as their other teachers, has set for them.

The club's activities include the sponsoring of a dance, field trips, discussions on teaching methods and the presentation of an assembly program.

Valentine Dance

QUEEN OF HEARTS' DANCE

The annual Queen of Hearts' Dance was held February 10, 1961, at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium. The Royal Court, consisting of a King and Queen of Hearts, a Maid of Honor, four attendants and five male escorts, was elected by students in grades ten to twelve.

King Glenn Mader crowned Sandra Houser to reign as Queen over this gala affair. The Queen's attendants were Nadine Donley, Maid of Honor, and her escort Willard Blecker, Rose Deck and Lester Copenhaver, Ruth Ann Wiley and Robert Kleinfelter, Sandra Miller and Logan Salem, Priscilla Brubaker and Richard Smith. The flower girls were Nancy Wae and Denise Weik and trainbearers Peter Hoffman and Rickey Ondrusek.

"Dream Castle in the Sky" was the theme for the dance. Fairy, Gail Shellhammer, waved her magic wand and took us to the dream castle to see the coronation of the King and Queen. The festivities of the evening included the traditional minuet, danced by the Junior girls, and accompanied by Martha Reed. This was followed with a baritone solo, "Rainbow Theme," by James Yoder, and also a gym exhibition by the Court Jesters. The program concluded with the Court Ensemble singing two selections, "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" and "Let's Dance." The entire program was interwoven in an imaginary fairytale and tour of the "Dream Castle in the Sky" with Corinne Shenk as Mistress of Ceremonies.

Class and Club representatives then presented gifts to the Royal Court and Carole Rager and Karen Boyer presented the flower girls and trainbearers with gifts from the Senior Tri-Hi-Y.

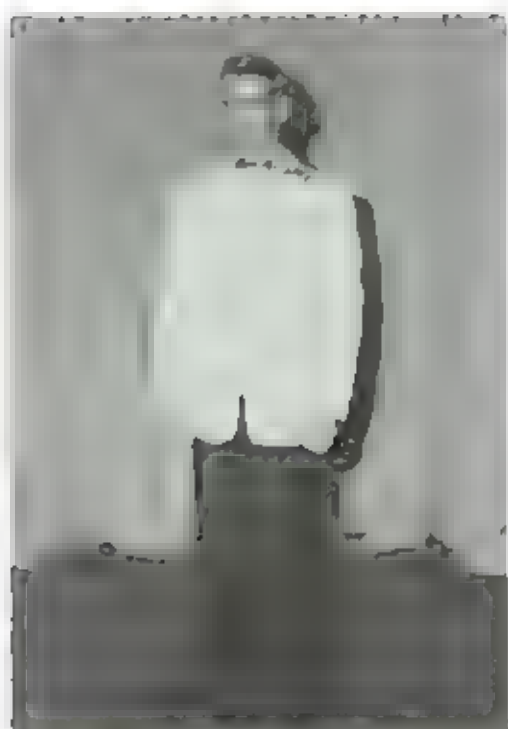

Johnny Leffler's orchestra provided the music for the Royal Dance after which everyone was invited to dance in the "Dream Castle in the Sky" until the spell wore off at midnight.

The dance was sponsored by the Senior Tri-Hi-Y and supervised by Mrs. Papson, its advisor.
